WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 25, 1910.*

President, in Blue Bath Robe, Raises Window to Hear Singing of Christmas Waits.

LANTERNS LIGHT PLAYERS OF TROMBONE AND CORNET

Streets Crowded With Belated Shoppers and Revelers.

TURKEY CARRIERS RESPECTED

Bachelors Make Merry in Their Clubs-Plans of Administration Officers.

cretly upon the White House just a little before midnight last night. The sound of shouted out his Christmas greetings.

them. They sang their Christmas carols and vigor and unconcern as if they were practicing under the watchful eye and

It was some time after the theaters had The President himself

It was just that hour when folks are nales.

ers and cornetists carried their instruments under their coats-in the true fash- a police force, which a misguided govion of the old English wait.

straggled across the park, and not a soul now sending an army. was there to watch them. They crossed up by an old colored man with a big superior in position. sprig of unsold mistletoe. He wanted to

The cornetists and trombone players unswung their instruments at the west They were marching in irregular fashion right up the curving drive. A police-His arms were raised in the air. He speil the Christmas carols of really ent ustastic Christmas walts. Trombones lost a bit of its tenor for a second.

procession and walked on. Taft, in Bathrobe, at Window.

Sure enough, from the dark recesses found none of the enemy.

of the room right above the front door there appeared the blue-bathrobed figure something that was lost in the sound of no damage. The revolutionists in time their Christmas song. Then the wind began to blow, the lace curtains bent inward, and the window was closed for the space of two more Christmas glees, but the President stayed right there all designed to do, through some defect The last glee, "O, Holy Angels," was beautifully sung that the President raised the window again. When the boys were through with it the President waved his hand, as he leaned in his bath ure of the gunnery and arrested the robe far out the window.

'Merry Christmas, boys," he shouted. Thank you very much. And the waits, gathering up their lanterns and moving off to the roadvav. again shouted all its unmistakable signs of approach- detail. Last Saturday the revolutionists and tossed it to the side of the tracks. ing holiday-making. The signs of executed a number of prisoners as a re-Christmas eve are merry-looking folks carrying big bundles along the streets, going in pairs and threes and fours, and even larger groups.

"Merry Christmas, Mr. President." Christmas Eve Crowd.

Their faces last night showed that they had the Christmas spirit. Even dad, who pays the bills, and who, according to jokesmiths and cartoonists, is a sad sort of chap around this time year-even he had his Christmas eve There were thousands of people on

F street last night. That thoroughfare is generally quiet after nightfall, but it was the busy little mart of trade last night. It was made a pretty scene with the many ladies in their furs, who came downtown and went back uptown again laden with packages, bundles, flowers, holly, mistletoe and wreaths. Every one of these ladies carried a Christmas eve today, reported that the revolutionists pheumonia, and both were so ill that Everybody Gives and Takes.

In a long walk down F street you could have seen lots of jostling and treading on other people's rights-and lefts, too. But no one seemed to get eross or hurt. It was Christmas eve- New Trial Refused Slayer of Alma and that's enough of a reason for keeping one's temper in a shopping crowd. Seventh and 9th streets were

YULE CAROLS ROUSE TO ATTACK MAL PASO STRIKE IS AVERTED

vance on Rebel Stronghold.

2,000 Against Insurrectos.

the Insurgents Must Be Ultimately Overcome.

CHIHUAHUA, December 23 (via El CHICAGO, December 24.-The wage Paso, Tex., December 24) .- A special rep- dispute between the Brotherhood of Locbresentative of the Associated Press who motive Engineers and the sixty-one railhas been with the insurrectos for two roads west, north and south of Chicago weeks returned today by mule team. His was settled here today. There will be judgment of the situation in this state no strike. may be summarized in the statement that Instead, the engineers get an average Gen. Navarro has been fought back from increase in wages of 101-3 per cent of the offensive to the defensive, but that their 1910 wage scale, making a Christ-Christmas waits-the real old English the reinforcements now at hand will mas promise of approximately $192 for waits, carrying lanterns and trombones crush the rebellion within a month or two. each of the 33,000 men involved, for each In this connection it was stated today subsequent year. Specifically, the agree-

Pedernales and vicinity (west of Mal engines, an added differential of 75 cents their carol. "Adeste Fideles." awoke Paso); 700 at San Antonio, made up of a day for the smaller Mallet engines, and President Taft, who came to a darkened 340 who were uninjured in the Mal Paso a differential of $1 a day for the heaviest ambuscade and 340 reinforcements and Mallets. 1.300 who arrived here last night and today. The latter include a battery of artillery, made up of two light mortars for firing over hills, two Hotchkiss guns of St. Paul's Catholic and two rapid firers. Twenty-two passenger coaches are now on the tracks of Warren S. Stone of the brotherhood gave the Mexico Northwestern railroad to for-

To Attack Mal Paso.

These troops will go first to San Antonio, making a new force of 2,000, led Numerous specific working conditions by the best officers in Mexico. It is their are improved by the agreement signed riogram to take Mai Paso, the present formally rebel stronghold. This once taken, a given control of electric and gasoline junction will be formed with Navarro un- motor cars used as locomotives, with an Christmas was imprisoned in menu there is no foreigner here viewing affairs cents a day. The new rate is effective impartially who pretends a belief that the with the signature of the agreement tofederals will not triumph eventually. The day. insurrectes lost one chance of creating a nation-wide revolt when they failed to the engineers were seeking practically 17 The stores had all closed and tired crush Navarro at Cerro Prieto. At that per cent Increase in the old pay. The salesgirls had straggled on toward their time they did not have their forces conown little Christmases. The streets were centrated and Navarro held his own. He is now strictly on the defensive at Peder-either fast asleep or getting waked up to While he is under orders not to take take Christmas by the hand and give it a the offensive, he is in a defensive position welcome when these little choir which the insurrectos cannot attack withboys started across Lafayette Park from out disaster. His job is to sit tight and allow the reinforcements, now numbering Every one of them had a lantern. Every treble his own force, to continue the camlantern was lighted. The trombone play- paign. Navarro's original force was, it has now been shown, scarcely more than

The Associated Press correspondent Pennsylvania avenue. On the south side brings word that in the fighting around cago. two or three strangling, belated shoppers, Pedernales and the west entrance to Mal with arms full of packages, fell in behind. Paso the insurrectos were much inferior The rear of the procession was brought in numbers, but at Mal Paso they were Navarro Seizes Pedernales.

It will be two weeks ago Sunday that gate of the White House grounds. There Navarro met the insurrectos at Cerro was a shuffling in the leaves of music Prieto and fought a drawn battle. He books and then the cold and crisp air of remained there until the following Thurs-Christmas eve—almost Christmas morning—was laden with the martial sound of day, when he was ordered to clear Mal that gold old Christmas song, "Oh, Come Paso of rebels to make way for a pro-All Ye Faithful, Joyful and Triumphant." spective troop train. With his entire force he left Cerro Prieto and marched with man on duty in front of the house rushed every semblance of making an attack on upon the waits with a horrified expres- the well posted revolutionists toward Rancho Santiago. The insurrectos opened was shouting, "Go back! You can't do fire, but their shots fell short. Navarro Three Men Killed and Presents But somehow even a policeman can't at a tangent toward Pedernales, four ere awed for a bar or two. The cornet he was protected by low hills, around which the awakened "pronunciados" hur-Some one whispered to the horrified po- ried when they discovered his real obliceman. He grinned, fell in behind the jective. When the hills were passed Navarro used shells on his pursuers, who were running parallel and somewhat be-The waits lined up under the porch and loss of life and Navarro occupied the sang at the foot of the White House shelter of the adobe houses of the town. The next day, Friday, Navarro occupied the railway station, where he now mas," there was a noise of an opening sent a detachment of 475 troops to take | Moore, ten miles from the city. Mal Paso. These went astray, and > thought he had During the fighting Thursday and Friday the shells of the federals did began to treat them with contempt. pons used by the national troops. The shrapnel used, instead of scattering as spouted like fountains. One of the shells burst within twenty feet of a detachment without doing any damage. the general grew incensed at the fail-

This acounts for Navarro's official re-

Executions and Reprisals.

Arrivals from the front today brought onfirmation of the statement that Na-Cerro Prieto. The number is given now about 125 yards from the crossing. as thirty-two, twenty-two in the village hristinas eve descended on the proper and ten at a namlet nearby. The taliatory measure. These were lovalists taken at Guerrero three or four weeks ago. They were given trial of a rough half a mile up the tracks on the pilot of ago. They were given trial of a rough the engine. sort and convicted of treachery while being allowed the consideration of neutrals. When the revolutionists became doubly certain of the executions at Cerro Prieto they shot their own captives. The execution took place at a hamlet between Husband and Wife Pass Away at Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, when the Associated Press man left the scene, there was no fighting. Navarro was content to hold his position.

Rebels Blow Up Railway Bridges.

EL PASO, Tex., December 24.-A tele- this Christmas eve; but the watchers phone message from Supt. George Rut- only made a feint to tell Mary, for in the Newsboy Excuses Himself for Disledge, who went down with the El Paso next room, she, too, lay dying. Husband and Northwestern train on its trip south and wife had both been stricken with blew up at least six bridges and possibly more, after stealing the train Thursday danger.

LIFE TERM FOR WENDLING.

Kellner. LOUISVILLE, Ky., December 24 .- Jo-crowded. They are always full of seph Wendling, convicted December 3 of people Saturday nights, but last night the murder of eight-year-old Alma Kell- J. A. Lebryer and Chief of Police Mcthey held their record crowd to judge the murder of eight-year-old Alma Kell- Cartney were indicted here today on TAFT FROM HIS BED Mexican Federals Will Ad- Wage Dispute of Railroads and Engineers Settled.

NAVARRO IS REINFORCED MEN GET AN INCREASE

Will Be Able to Send a Force of Pay to Be Advanced 10 1-3 Per Cent Over 1910 Scale.

BEST OFFICERS ARE INCLUDED WORK OF COMMISSIONER NEILL

Disinterested Observers Believe That Mediator, Under Erdman Act. Brought About Agreement After Tie-Up Seemed Inevitable.

that federal troops are now stationed as ment provides for a raise of 40 cents a day for all engineers, with a differential Six hundred under Gen. Navarro at in addition of 25 cents for 215,000-pound

In a letter to United States Commissioner of Labor Charles P. Neill, who, as sure disagreement, Grand Chief Engineer as the reason for accepting the terms offered the suffering and loss which would attend a general western strike.

Engineers on Motor Cars.

railroads had agreed to a raise approximating 11/2 per cent, and there the matter As early as Thursday it was conceded by both sides that only a small margin of difference separated them, but that each side feared that greater questions than that of wages were being Feared Long Strike.

When today's conference began, Mediator Neil announced that his efforts were about concluded, and that unless the conferees reached a settlement today, there was little use for him to remain in Chi-

Full realization of what a long destructive strike might mean, brought the opthe conference began. Attorneys and stenographers at once began to draw up the agreement between the railroads and the engineers, based on the pledges at the conference.

SANTA CLAUS WAGON

All Burned Up in Ensuing Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, December 24.-While delivering Christmas packages in hind, and kept them off. There was no a big automobile truck for a Philadelphia department store, two men and a has headquarters, and at the same time passenger train struck the truck at The dead are: John Eccles, twenty-two years, driver; Edward Landie, port that he had taken the pass. He twenty-five years, helper, and Leon Malsberger, sixteen years, helper. The three men were delivering Christmas packages in Moore and other nearwas about one-third full when the accident occurred. the railroad tracks. There are no gates $1,000. nor watchman at the crossing. The only means of warning persons of the ap-Word from Navarro's camp states that proach of trains is a bell, which starts ringing as trains approach the road. It is thought the men, because of the noise made by the automobile, did not Malsberger's mangled body was found at the crossing. Eccles lay about fifty they were descending the No. 5 shaft varro executed a number of civilians at yards up the tracks. Landies was found of the New River Collieries Company The train was running at high speed 500 feet to the bottom of the mine. the impact was so great that it tore the streets of the city as night fell with story was told here today in convincing body of the automobile from its truck Danyo, Nick Kokula and John Sosko It took fire and was consumed by the flames, together with practically all the

UNITED IN DEATH.

Almost the Same Hour. NEW YORK, December 24 .- "Send for shot their first tiger.

Mary: I think I'm dying," said Thomas Cooley, seventy-three years old, to the watchers at his bedside in Jersey City neither had been informed of the other's "Send for Tom, I think the end's here. now," said Mary in the next room an hour later; but the watchers only pretended to tell Tom, for he was dead. Mary followed him without questioning, twenty minutes later.

City Officials Indicted EL RENO, Okla., December 21.-Maj.

PRISONER IN COURT

Unrebuked, He Shows Judge Government and National As- Possible Steps Toward Honor-What He Did to Man Who Held Him Up.

CHICAGO, December 24 .- Dr. Patrick H. Hayes, who is sixty years old, but athletic, soundly pummeled a man counter defiances today.

It came about in this manner: and hold-up man, last night, the physi- assemblings in the provinces and to treat naval affairs committee. cian punched Meyers until the latter the agitators as revolutionaries, punishing cried quits. Dr. Hayes then called a them in the severest manner. policeman and had Meyers taken to

of the courtroom and sitting upon him. "There, judge, that's what I did," said steadily impaired. by suburban towns. The big vehicle Dr. Hayes as he loosened his hold on the frightened prisoner.

HURLED DOWN MINE SHAFT. Four Men Thrown 500 Feet by Overturning of Bucket Carrying Them. ECCLES, W. Va., December 24 .- Four men met death when a bucket in which here today overturned, throwing them The dead are John Antonick, Mike Their homes were at German. Pa.

German Crown Prince Kills Tiger. JAIPUR, India, December 24.-The German crown prince had his first experience at pigsticking and tiger shooting today. He speared a fine boar and shot a full grown male tiger near the place where the late King Edward, the Russian emperor and King George also SERVICE SLOW: KILLS MAN.

turbance to Other Diners. ST. LOUIS, December 24.-Enraged because a steak he had ordered in a restaurant was not served promptly, John May Give Only Half of Two Days Bennett, aged eighteen years, a newsboy this afternoon drew a revolver and killed James Costas, an employe of the res-Bennett then excused himself to the other diners for the disturbance and from the restaurant.

Thomas Benton Hord Dead.

EDICT FROM THE THRONE CAUSES CLASH IN CHINA

SOME CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

sembly Issue Statements Expressive of Defiance.

PEKING, December 24.-The govern-

Attack by Progressives.

man tried to rob you?" asked the court form of a memorial to the throne, which today when Meyers was arraigned for recites in scathing terms the cares of Without making reply Dr. Hayes jumped viser to the naval department, but who and collateral evidence, the scientists to that he has borne a great share of the ured in the previous discussion of the attack of the progressives and that of question and of unprejudiced views. wound up by hurling Meyers to the floor his associates in the grand council, by so far this plan, which springs from whom it is asserted the country has been National Geographic Society, Admiral was held to the grand jury on bonds of ed in its entirety in the person of the admiralship plan not having pr states that the throne does not have nite plan. the right assumed in the edict of December 18, in which the memorial for kansas and Roberts of Massachusetts, the creation of a constitutional gov- who are most conspicuous among those ernment is rejected.

Demand for Ministry. The memorial calls for the immediate establishment of a ministry responsible BADLY HURT WHILE COASTING. moving the modern troops with the purpose of suppressing any outbreak.

KILLS TWO BROTHERS

New Marshal Also Wounds Third in Fight.

afternoon shot and killed two Thigpen a concussion of the brain. brothers, Tal and J. A., and fatally wounded the third, Claude Thigpen. Raffield was appointed marshal last Thursday. This afternoon he, like his into the driveway and ran over the sled, predecessor, notified the Thigpen brothers they would have to leave the country or be locked up. A fight ensued. When one of the brothers reached for his pistol, Raf-field began firing. No arrests have been made. FIREMEN TOO GENEROUS.

Pay for Chicago Victims. AUGUSTA, Ga., December 24.-Chief

Frank G. Reynolds, a personal friend bill" was necessary in order that he of the late Fire Marshal Horan of Chi- might conduct the negotiation in a more cago, was today forced to insist that decisive manner, says that it does not understand what he means. walked out. . He was arrested two blocks the men of his department scale down their voluntary contribution to the that the situation, after approval of the widows and orphan members of the "padlock bill," is identical with that of Chicago fire department who lost their last January, when it was stated that the lives in the Morris plant fire to one holy sea could not continue negotiations are building a monoplane in this city.

PEARY'S POLAR PROOFS

ing Him by Advancement to Rear Admiral.

Another phase of the proposed honoring ment and the national assembly issued of Capt. Robert E. Peary with a staff member of the Wright team, tried to es- auctioneer in Georgetown. rear admiralship, in recognition of his tablish a new altitude record of 11,000 in Municipal Judge Himes' court today In a lengthy edict the throne ordered arctic achievements, developed yesterday, feet, but succeeded in climbing only 6,250 years ago. He went west early in life and was unrebuked for the surprising the return home of the provincial leaders when it was said that what he presents feet, the cold forcing him to descend. who are now in Peking agitating for the as proofs of his having reached the north immediate convocation of a general par- pole, together with other testimony on When Dr. Hayes was attacked by liament, and instructed the viceroys to that point, may be passed upon by other Edward Meyers, an alleged pickpocket employ general arms to prevent further scientists at the instance of the House data which he had heretofore refused to speed test. Then Curtiss hauled out his ington Lodge of Odd Fellows. "What did you do, doctor, when this The assembly's counterblast took the When they are submitted at an early meeting of the committee, it is suggested, judges caught Parmalee's time at fifty- originally came from Salem, Mass. several scientists should be asked by the | four miles. Chester, Henry Gannett and O. H. Titt-Arguing that a constitutional regime man, who passed on the Peary claims, Rene Barrier Establishes Local Altihas been begun already, and that there- were all friends of Peary, is only a tenta-Meyers, who is thirty-four years old, fore the government is no longer vest- tive one, the committee consideration of Prince Chun, the regent, the memorial gressed sufficiently to formulate any defi-

Both Representatives Macon of Ar question during the holidays.

It is reported that the government is Two Boys Run Over by Automobile this morning, a height of 4,000 feet. He beat his way on a freight train, from May Die. WASHINGTON, Pa., December 24.

Two boys were probably fatally hurt of time aloft. here today when they were run over by Rene Barrier flew twice over Lake Erastus Raffield, living near here, this the head, body and legs, and received thirteen, was badly cut and bruised about attempted since his accident in Memphis. As the boys came down a hill on a bobsled they turned into a driveway to avoid the automobile. The chauffeur, in an crushing the boys before they could escape. Both were picked up unconscious and little hope is held out for their re-

REPLIES. TO CANALEJAS.

Statement on "Padlock Bill." ROME, December 24.-The Osservatore on the statement made by Premier Cana-lejas that the approval of the Spanish chamber of deputies of the "padlock What is certain, the paper continues, is the Track.

WRECKED IN TUNNEL RUN DOWN BY CAR

Helpers Lose Their Lives.

Two of the Victims Had Families Motorman Unable to Avoid Catasand Had Anticipated Eating Christmas Dinner With Them.

ROANOKE, Va., December 24.-Four Their arms laden with packages inmail clerks and helpers were killed and tended for Christmas presents, John J. several men were injured in the wreck Peabody, seventy-three years old, and of passenger train No. 16 of the Norfolk his wife, Mrs. Mary Peabody, were and Western railway in tunnel No. 6, struck by a southbound Takoma Park near Williamson, W. Va., at 5 o'clock car at 9th and L streets northwest last this afternoon. The train left Columbus, night. Mrs. Peabody sustained injuries Ohio, at 8:10 o'clock this morning, en that probably will prove fatal. route to this city and Norfolk, Va.

The train was being drawn by two engines, which left the track at the en-The locomotive and the tender and the

At work in the mail car on the heavy Christmas mails, the clerks had no chance of escape. Four of them were Peabody has sustained a fractured skull killed and one seriously hurt.

The Dead.

The dead employes of the railway nail service are: James R. Herndon of Roanoke, Va. Carl C. Goode of McDowell, W. Va. Howard K. Bell of Franklin, Ohio.

serious injuries and Mail Clerk Charles N. Davisson of Columbus was badly Mail Clerks Dowdy and Herndon have families and had anticipated being at home for their Christmas dinner. The wreckage choked up the tunnel and it will be some time before the debris can be cleared away and traffic resumed. None of the passengers on the train is reported injured. LOS ANGELES FLIGHTS

Edwards of Roanoke, Va., sustained

Curtiss and Parmalee in Daring Race—Brookins Takes 2,000-Foot Glide.

Cal., December 24.-Thrid after thrill was bring of Police Court arranged to accept given the huge crowd that witnessed the bond for their appearance. the daring ones who performed them gineer of the fire department. Curtiss and P. O. Parmalee of the rival who sailed a big ship away from the Wright team were some of the features. port of Georgetown about the beginning Arch Hoxsey of Pasadena, another of the century and who was afterward an Sixty Miles an Hour.

Walter Brookins of Dayton, Ohio, organization in 1843. In 1857 he joined thrilled the spectators by a 2,000-foot the Columbia fire company and later glide. Glenn Curtiss waited until Parma-Capt. Peary recently made known his lee brought out his "Baby Wright," hailed willingness to submit to Congress the as the fastest flier in the world, for a teer Firemen's Association and of Washown sixty-horsepower biplane and passed Parmalee. Curtiss was unofficially timed Virginia, of the well known family of at more than sixty miles an hour. Two that name in Virginia. The Peabody's

> The machine of James Radley, the Euglish aviator, performed erratically, but proved to be the fastest on the field. For the kilometer course his time was 1.50 3-5, the prize for quick starting.

FLIES OVER NEW ORLEANS.

tude Record of 6.130 Feet.

feet this afternoon, on the opening day ern Maryland freight train near Wilof the ten-day aviation meet in this city, liamsport. . against the pending bill, will devote con- Rene Barrier, in a fifty-horsepower He had been at Clear Spring and was siderable attention to the details of the monoplane, flew over the business dis- making his way toward the village of trict of New Orleans.

> flown for fifty-six minutes, ten seconds ger train, young Baker was trying to traveled thirty-five miles in his flight and which he fell and was run over. established what is claimed as a world's He was discovered lying along the track record for cross-city flights in duration by the crew of a train following. Rail-an automobile, as they were coasting. Pontchartrain. Barrier, Moisant and Rene Donovan Lytle, aged twelve, sustained Simon, in monoplanes, made a number right leg crushed from the foot to the a broken leg, lacerated scalp and in- of flights, and Charles K. Hamilton in hip. His condition was such as not to DUBLIN, Ga., December 24.-Marshal ternal injuries, while John Vester, aged his biplane made the first flight he has warrant an operation.

SAVES BOY FROM DROWNING. Car Company Employe Uses Trolley Rope as Lasso.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, December 24 .-

eight-year-old Paul Martin, who was house to be erected by the organization drowning in the Scioto river. Borrer, shall be a memorial to Capt. Francis H. an employe of the street car company, Vatican Organ Fails to Understand barn and when he approached the Harvard football team of 1908. It Town street bridge and saw the boy in is expected that ground will be broken the river he cut the trolley rope, lassoed the drowning boy and dragged Romano, the Vatican organ, commenting him to shore. The lad was unconscious, but quickly recovered.

Aspiring Aeronauts Build Biplane.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., December 24. -Benjamin Garrison and Ralph Kinder-day announced that the fifteenth an-

Mr. Peabody, formerly chief engineer baggage car and mail cars were all of the District fire department, is a

H. L. Hoffman, motorman dent. He applied the brakes as soon as he saw the pedestrians and succeeded in Policeman Edward Kelly, detailed at headquarters, was near the scene when the accident occurred. He went to the aid of Mr. and Mrs. Peabody. Mrs. Peabody was unconscious when picked up and carried to the porch in Peabody was in a dazed condition

The auto patrol wagon from the second precinct was summoned, Policeman Bennett in charge. The quick trip from the station to the scene of the accident and back to the hospital was the means of getting the injured couple in the hospital without delay.

On the way to the hospital the husband regained his senses. He was the affair with the policeman.

Crew of Car Ordered Arrested.

opening of the second annual interna- Mr. Peabody, a native of Washington tional aviation meet here today. Spiral is well known throughout the entire Disglides and dips that threatened death to trict. Many years ago he was chief eneral years. He was a member of the Northern Lil erty volunteer fire company, joining the was instrumental in getting a paid fire He is a member of the Veteran Volun-against Curtiss' 1.53. Radley also won Funeral Instead of Christmas Cheer for Train Victim. Special Dispatch to The Star.

NEW ORLEANS, December 24.-Es- result of injuries sustained this aftertablishing a local altitude record of 6,130 noon, when he was run over by a West-

Half Way, three miles south of Hagers-This made the second cross-city flight town, to spend Christmas at the home of the day, John B. Moisant having of his stepmother. Instead of buying a ticket and taking the regular passenoad officials in Hagerstown were notified and the injured man was brought here

At the hospital the physicians found ais

HARVARD VARSITY CLUBHOUSE New Building to Be a Memorial to

Francis H. Burr. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., December 24.-The executive committee of the Harvard Var-Seymore Borrer today saved the life of sity Club has decided that the new club-Burr, who died in Boston several weeks

ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF ART.

Paintings on View in Carnegie Institute, Pittsburg.

Four Railway Mail Clerks and Ex-Fire Chief Peabody and FIVE CENTS.

Mrs. Peabody Injured. OTHER TRAINMEN INJURED WIFE IS LIKELY TO DIE

Cars Smashed When Engines Jump Burdened With Christmas Gifts, Couple Meet Accident.

CHOKES ENTRANCE CREW OF CAR IS ARRESTED

trophe-Put on Brakes. But Struck Pedestrians.

The couple were on their way from a shopping tour and were but a short distance from the family residence, on L street between 8th and 9th streets.

thrown from the tracks, the mail car Emergency Hospital, suffering with con cussion of the brain. He also sustained cuts about the head and body. Physicians at the hospital believe Mrs

On Way Home.

Her recovery is doubtful.

The accident happened shortly after 8 clock. Mr. and Mrs. Peabody alighted from a northbound car at the south sidof the crossing, at 9th and L streets, and had started in the direction of their Lama W. Dowdy of Pearisburg, Va. home. The southbound car came along Engineer Robinson and his fireman, before they had crossed the tracks and struck them.

> stopping the car just after it had cleared the crossing Mr. Peabody and his wife had been knocked down, however. About all the motorman and conductor, D. C. Keyes, could do was to assist the elderly couple.

> front of the Chinese laundry at the southwest corner of 9th and L streets. Mr. The auto patrol wagon from the sec

Capt. Peck of the second precinc learned from the hospital that Mrs. Peabody would probably die. He directed that the crew of the car be arrested or AVIATION FIELD, LOS ANGELES, bonded for their appearance. Clerk Se-and an exciting race between usenn H. He is a son of the late John Peabody,

He is a retired machinist, having learned his trade in the navy yard many and was employed on a railroad for sev

KILLED BEATING WAY HOME.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., December 24. Roscoe Baker, a young farmer of near Roxbury, Washington county, died at the hospital in Hagerstown tonight as the about the 1st of March for the building.

PITTSBURG, December 24.-Director John W. Beatty of the department of fine arts of the Carnegie Institute to-are building a monoplane in this city. The people thronged the many shops that line those streets. They pulled and pushed laughed and grew tired, but and pushed laughed and serve tired, but and pushed laughed and Second Page.)

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., December 24.—

The people thronged the many shops in the morris piant fire to one days pay the fire imprisonment by a cartney were indicted here today on the department was derived and grew tired, but and the sale of intoxicating and the sale of intoxicating and the sale of intoxicating from the current week. Mayor Busse is pointed out, include the new bill, and the city council, was indicted no a charge of neglect of duty in permitting and the sale of intoxicating from the current week. Mayor Busse is pointed out, include the new bill, and the city council, was indicted on a charge of neglect of duty in permitting gambling and the sale of intoxicating from the current week. Mayor Busse is pointed out, include the new bill, and the city council, was indicted on a charge of neglect of duty in permitting days pay.

Thomas Benton Hord of this place, said and the sale of intoxicating from the current week. Mayor Busse is pointed out, include the new bill, and the situation is not altered in the city council, was notified this afternoon by wire of the world, died today at Minneapolis, was notified this afternoon by wire of the action.